THE CALIFORNIA SENATORIAL CONTEST.

The Grass Valley Telegraph, an Independent paper with Democratic leaning, says: In California this year the election of United States Senator will come as nearly being a choice by a direct vote of the people as can be.

By common consent the Republicans have nominated Leland Stanford as their candidate. This is understood by the organs of the party and generally by the voters. If the next Legislature is Republican on joint ballot it will be an act of bad faith not to elect Mr. Stanford as his own successor.

The Democrats in the same way of a joint nomination are for Stephen M. White of Los Angeles for United States Senator. If the next Legislature is Democratic on joint ballot it will be an act of bad faith not to elect Mr. White to succeed Mr. Stanford.

In this county it is understood that the Republican legislative candidates (two Assembly districts in this county) must be for Stanford and it is equally well understood that the Democratic legislative candidates must be for White.

The issue between White and Stanford is surely made and is clearly defined. In the Republican ranks, as far as we know of, there is no man talked of for Senator excepting Stanford. In the Democratic ranks Mr. Clunie is spoken of as a possibility, but as he is running for Representative in Congress it is very evident that he is not thinking much about any talk there is of his being elected a Senator.

And so when the voter casts his ballot for an Assemblyman or for a State Senator he is either voting for Stanford or for White. That is the way the game is made.

THEY STILL GRUMBLE.

Opponents of the Silver bill, displeased with the favorable results in the bullion market which have followed its passage, are now busily engaged searching for some new arguments to support a proposition no longer tenable. The delay which necessarily accompanies the resumption of work in mines which have been closed down for years, is now offered as evidence of an alleged distrust on the part of the producer in the future stability of the market. The present advance in prices is said to be only a spurt, which will last just as long as many speculators choose to maintain a corner in the metal. The absurdity of such idle assertions is too patent to necessitate any further discussion on the subject. Suffice it to say that in the meantime silver producers will be quite content to accept the situation as it stands to day with every confidence in future. The best criterion of the firm condition of the market is the fact that all the leading banking depositories of the metal are holding for much higher prices, which are expected when speculators have exhausted the small reserves of bullion which they now retain to their credit.

FINE CROPS.

Abundance of Grass and Vegetables.

Captain Ferd Ried, says the Silver State, who has been on an excursion through the northern part of the county and over the line into Multnomah county, Oregon, reports unusually fine crops of vegetables and hay throughout the country. He says there are miles of natural meadows above Medford, where the grass is three feet high. It will not be mowed and there is nothing to eat it. At Wilkeson's ranch, Ten Mile Creek, there is millet loaded with seed and as tall as a man's head. At Willow Creek, Ralph McLuhan has the finest kind of corn and vegetables, and a promising young orchard, and at Rebel Creek, Frank Snapp has abundant crops of fruit, vegetables and hay. He says the country has been transformed by the wet winter from a desert to a meadow.

Genoa Cleanings.

Courtier, August 20.

Johnny Carstensen, the young man who was stabbed, has sound pleasant pastime in fishing along the river the past few days. The heavy rains recently undermined the bridge at Stroupe on the Placerville road. Billy Miller, driving Hank Martin's freight team went partly through the bridge. He succeeded in getting out by unloading the freight.

The proceedings brought in the Supreme Court at Carson by T. D. Edwards to prohibit Judge Rising from trying the Carson river water cases have been dismissed on account of an error in the petition. The matter was intended to test the constitutionality of the water law.

A small fly or scale bug is invading many orchards in Genoa and the valley. Kick Bartels, of East Fork, has 40 apple trees that promise a yield of 400 boxes. Both the leaves and the fruit are covered with these bugs and have assumed a rusty, waxy appearance. The apples appear to be sound but will have to be washed or rubbed with a cloth before being placed on the market. So far as we have heard none but apple trees are troubled with this pest.

California Fruit.

California fruit continues to be shipped east by the trainload. The choice fruit of the State is exported, and San Franciscans are beginning to complain. The demand for the fruit East is steadily increasing, and more vineyards and orange groves must be planted to supply it.

THE SAN FRANCISCO TRAGEDY.

Particulars of the Chenoweth-Carroll Murder and Suicide.

We extract from Friday's San Francisco Examiner the following account of Thursday's San Francisco tragedy, which resulted in the murder of R. T. Carroll and the suicide of John M. Chenoweth. After detailing the business troubles between the two men the Examiner says:

"This is the way we'll settle our accounts," and, saying this, he raised his silver-mounted pistol and fired at Richard T. Carroll.

Mr. Carroll fell and died instantly. Then Chenoweth put the pistol to his head and killed himself.

The scene of the tragedy was Carroll & Carroll's wholesale liquor store at 306 Market street. The time was about 4:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Richard T. Carroll was the senior member of the firm. He was a rich man, well known and influential.

John M. Chenoweth was the proprietor of the luxurious Peerless saloon on Market street, near Stockton. All the men-about-town knew him.

Mr. Carroll had furnished money to start him in business and kept him going. He did not think Chenoweth was managing the saloon properly. He sent for him yesterday. Chenoweth called about 4 o'clock. They had a talk in Mr. Carroll's private room, which is formed by partitions eight feet or so high. No one else was in the store save the bookkeeper, D. McDonald. He was back of the counter. Mr. Carroll's room adjoins the space occupied by the bookkeeper.

Mr. McDonald probably heard the conversation, as although engaged at his books he was standing close to Mr. Carroll's room. Whether he heard it or not could not be learned, as he would not talk with newspaper reporters and made only a short statement to the police. It is presumed that Mr. Carroll informed Mr. Chenoweth that he must give up the saloon.

A minute before the shooting he opened the door connecting his room with the book-keeper's area, and said:

"Let me have the ledger. I want Chenoweth's account."

Chenoweth got up from the leather-covered easy chair in which he had been sitting, walked to the door, and standing there shot at Mr. Carroll, who had his back towards him.

Although Mr. Carroll was not six feet away one bullet missed him. The pearl-handled pistol was a large one, of 45 caliber, and the lead plowed a big hole in the wall over the safe. The second shot followed so quickly that Mr. Carroll did not have time to turn around before the deadly bullet came. It struck him in the back of the head, near the base of the skull. He fell backwards, and struck heavily on the floor.

Two more shots had been fired before people rushed in from the street. Chenoweth had turned, gone back into the room, and ended his life. The first of these two shots was ineffective. The bullet missed his head, went through an oil painting of an Oriental girl with water jugs around her, and was imbedded in the mortar of the wall. Then he placed the muzzle in his right ear and blew a great cavity where the bullet went in. His death, too, was instantaneous.

Democratic Delegates.

The following is a list of the delegates elected to the State and County Conventions at the Democratic primaries yesterday:

First Ward—State—Charles A. Jones and Richard Ryland. County—V. F. LaMott, Hugh Campbell, J. N. Buleless, Thomas Haydon, Joseph Frey and James Carroll. Second Ward—State—Alex Aguayo, J. C. Hagerman, Ben. C. Shearer, Al. White. County—H. A. Waldo, G. LaFarge, P. H. Mulcahy, J. M. Cunningham, Fred W. Hagerman, Benjamin Titus, H. E. Davis, O. H. Perry, James Long, Peter Martinovic, W. F. Golden, W. D. B. Graham, W. A. Wimer, Hiram Sample, S. Euvich, H. Bergstein, Henry F. Rahe, C. F. M. Lange.

Third Ward—State—D. O'Keefe, J. J. Becker, F. Lemmons and R. S. Osborn. County—F. C. Updike, W. N. Knox, S. Jacobs, H. Davis, Jr., Wm. Dixon, J. Burke, B. Campbell, J. B. Cain, James O'Neill, H. Morris, E. R. Lewis, C. Gilling, T. A. Read, H. Orr, S. W. Peck, H. J. Berry and J. G. Kerth.

The Combination Show.

Of the Miller Bros. and Prof. C. Norris' combination, which appears at the Opera House in Reno on the 2d and 3d inst., the San Francisco Examiner says: It is one of the best novelty shows that has visited the coast for years, doing the banner business. The Miller Bros. attraction is of itself the finest in the world. Scenes of all parts of the globe, including California and the Yosemite Valley, are exhibited. The storm at sea, showing a ship struck by lightning and in flames, the crew and passengers saving themselves on the raft; bombardment of cities, and hundreds of other realistic effects.

Reno Won.

"Frank M.," the trotter belonging to Frank Lee and Thomas Keating of Reno, won the best three in five mile heats at the Ohio (Cal.) Fair yesterday. He took the first and second heats—time 2:19, 2:18, Victor H. won the third and fourth—time 2:19, 2:18, Frank M. won the fifth and race in 2:20.

Secretary of State Dornier came in from Carson last night on his way to San Francisco.

Summer Literary Poison.

Almost every one starting off for the summer takes some reading matter. It is a book out of the library, or off the bookstand, or bought of the boy hawking books through the cars. I really believe there is more trash read among the intelligent classes in July and August than in all the other ten months of the year. Men and women who at home would not be satisfied with a book that was not really sensible, I find sitting on hotel piazzas or under the trees reading books the index of which would make them blush if they knew that you knew what the book was. "Oh," they say, "you must have intellectual recreation."

Yes, there is no need that you take along into a watering place "Hamilton's Metaphysics," or some ponderous discourse on the eternal decrees, or "Faraday's Philosophy." There are many easy books that are good. You might as well say, "I propose now to give a little rest to my digestive organs, and instead of eating heavy meat and vegetables I will, for a little while, take lighter food—a little strychnine and a few grains of ratbane." Literary poison in August is as bad as literary poison in December. Mark that. Do not let the vermin of a corrupt printing press jump and crawl into your Saratoga trunk or White Mountain valise. Are there not good books that are easy to read—books of entertaining travel, books of congenial history, books of pure fun, books of poetry, ringing with merry canto; books of fine engraving, books that will rest the mind as well as purify the heart and elevate the whole life? There will not be an hour between this and the day of your death when you can afford to read a book lacking in moral principle.—T. De Witt Talmage in Ladies' Home Journal.

Prince of the Comoros.

Another sable personage is now visiting Paris in the person of Prince Mardjano, of the Comoro Islands, which lie off the east coast of Africa near Mozambique. He is here in order, it is said, to furnish the government with information concerning his country, but this would seem to be a vague, semi-official explanation of his presence in Paris. Whatever may be the object of the prince's coming he has neglected to provide himself with an interpreter through whom he could make his business known; and when he and his secretary appeared at the ministry of marine not a single official could understand a word which either of the strangers uttered.

After a weary waste of atrocious French on the one hand and of absurd Arabic on the other an interpreter was summoned hastily and some light was at last thrown on the wishes and intention of the distinguished black. Prince Mardjano has had a perilous voyage from his native land, for he was shipwrecked a few days after its shores receded from his view and, having been picked up by an English vessel, he was taken to the Cape.—Paris Letter.

Grew Old While Drowning.

Richard L. Edwards, 19 years old, was drowned while rowing on the Ohio. The body was swept beneath some barges and could not be recovered. Friday a corpse was found floating in the river near Rising Sun, Ind. On the body was a watch and ring both bearing the initials R. L. E. Apparently the body was that of a man at least 50 years of age with snow white hair.

Edwards' brother positively identified the body from the jewelry and clothing. When the young man fell into the river his hair was coal black; that of the corpse was pure white. Fright doubtless made the change while he was struggling for life. There has been great excitement along the river over the mysterious case. It is the first instance on record where a man was prematurely aged while drowning.—Cincinnati Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

Gift to Richmond College.

The family—wife and children—of T. C. Williams have given $25,000 to endow a law professorship in Richmond college. Some months before his death Mr. Williams sent to Treasurer C. H. Ryland his check for $10,000 to aid in endowing the college and at the same time he offered to give $5,000 toward endowing a chair of law, conditioned on the raising of $20,000 more in a given time. The condition was not complied with, and of course Mr. Williams' estate was released from the obligation to pay the $5,000. But now his wife and children step forward and pay the entire $25,000, and thus give to Richmond college the T. C. Williams law professorship.—Richmond Herald.

The Fashionable Fox Terrier.

Every dog has his day, and the fashionable dog of just this present day is unquestionably the fox terrier. Abundant evidence of this fact can be picked up any fine afternoon by a walk through a fashionable New York thoroughfare. The younger set of men about town, almost to a man, own fox terriers. Their sisters and the other fellows' sisters of their acquaintance own them; blushing school girls own them, and, like certain kinds of patent medicine, children cry for them. Indeed, it may be truly said that there are few well-to-do families who have not at one time or another had one of these sprightly, intelligent and pugnacious little dogs.—New York Tribune.

A thoroughbred Poland China sow, owned in Mount Leonard, Mo., recently gave birth to a hairless, flesh colored monstrosity, with head, ears, teeth and one fore foot resembling a bull pup, and the rest of its body resembling a pig. All who have seen the thing unite in declaring its resemblance to the dog family, though its skin is almost human and its body that of a hog.

A school teacher in Marcellus, Mich., received the following note from an angry parent: "My 18.90 when my boys are staying away from school I have Work For them; and when they are here I have to teach them, and when they are to home, that is non of your Bismess you hant rering My Shenty not by a good Side, at my home."

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-57-ly

A Decision as is a Decision.

Concerning the casino problem which was published some time ago, a gentleman in Reno sent it to the San Francisco Examiner for solution, to which the Monarch's Bunsby replied by letter as follows:

This is a disputed point in the American game. In casino, according to Hoyle the smaller count is subtracted from the greater, and only the difference is counted. Some count in the following order: Big casino, little casino, cards, spades, aces. Some count indiscriminately. Take your choice.

Charles W. Lindquist, who stabbed Johnny Carstensen at Genoa, had a trial last week at which the jury brought in a verdict of "assault and battery," which caused much dissatisfaction in Douglas county. Judge Rising, in sentencing the defendant, expressed the opinion that he was deserving of severer punishment than the legal penalty for the offense for which he was convicted.

The Democratic primaries passed off quietly yesterday. The tickets agreed upon at the meetings in the different wards were all elected. There was no contest except in the third ward, where an unsuccessful attempt was made to defeat one of the candidates for delegate to the State Convention.

The equivalent, in English money, of $2500 was once offered by an old lady in London for the return of a favorite cat which had strayed or been stolen. People called her a "cranky," and perhaps she was. It is unfortunate that one of the gentler sex should ever gain this title, yet many do. It is, however, frequently not their fault. Often functional derangements will apparently change a woman's entire nature. Don't blame such sufferers if they are "cranky," but tell them to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is an infallible remedy for female weaknesses. "Favorite Prescription" has cured thousands of poor, bed-ridden suffering women of "female weakness," painful irregularities, ulcerations, organic displacements and kindred ailments too numerous to mention. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will, in every case, give satisfaction or the price ($1.00) will be refunded. Carson Appeal: The running horses at the track are getting down to muscle work and their condition is reported good. Many fast and square races can be depended on this year at both the State and District fairs.

There will be a meeting of the State Board of Trade at the Court House next Wednesday evening for the purpose of considering what action the Board will take in regard to the question of calling a Constitutional Convention.

A large force of men was working all Friday night and until noon yesterday clearing the track of the landslide caused by the cloudburst about seven miles this side of Washworth. Large rocks which were washed upon the track had to be blasted.

Friday's No. 4, which was detained by the track obstruction caused by the cloudburst, did not arrive until nearly 2 o'clock p. m. yesterday, and yesterday's No. 2 got in about half an hour later. Number 3 met and passed the west-bound train at Clark's and Washworth.

Central Nevada: Surveyor H. B. Maxon, with three assistants, came on No. 3 yesterday afternoon. They are here in the interest of Bliss, to examine surveys made of water ditches on the Humboldt. A question is involved as to what is a miner's inch of water in this State.

Carson Tribune: Yesterday Farmer Tread way received from the Pioneer Society of San Francisco a white silk handkerchief bearing the emblem of a grizzly bear, and the star of Empire wending its way westward. It is a testimonial thankfully received by the old pioneer and Mexican veteran.

DESERTED HER HOME.

A Eureka, (Cal.) Woman Under Persecution of Visiting Friends in Reno Prepares to Fly.

A dispatch from Cleveland, Ohio, of the 28th inst. relates the following: For a month past a strikingly handsome woman, with a man and two little boys, have been living in rented rooms on Granger street. They gave the names of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Sanborn, the man obtaining employment in a bookstore.

On Tuesday T. J. Ricks, a wealthy citizen of Eureka, Cal., arrived here and secured the services of a detective to find his runaway wife and two children whom he had traced to this city, in company with a Congregational minister named Sanborn. Ricks says that Sanborn went to Eureka early in 1889, was appointed pastor of the Congregational society, built a fine church and was very popular. Four months ago Mrs. Ricks started for Reno, ostensibly to visit friends, taking the children with her. About the same time Sanborn left for a vacation.

The next thing Ricks heard was that his wife had eloped with Sanborn, and that, without his knowledge, she had procured what she said was a divorce. He traced her couple to San Francisco, Chicago and then here. They were easily found, and a lively scene took place.

Ricks wanted to kill Sanborn, but was restrained by the detective. Negotiations were in progress for two days, and ended in Mrs. Ricks surrendering the children, signing away her rights to certain property and receiving $2,000 in cash from Ricks.

Ricks offered to forgive his erring wife and let her home, but she refused.

Sanborn and Mrs. Ricks, or Mrs. Sanborn, as she now calls herself, claiming to have married him, left for the East to-day. Sanborn has been negotiating for a pastorate in Massachusetts.

Reno and the N. C. & O.

The Susanville Advertiser publishes the details relative to the recent publication involving the right of way of the N. C. & O. railroad through East street in Reno and says: Conceding for argument that the property mentioned has depreciated somewhat in value by reason of the operation of trains in close proximity to it, and that the grant is technically invalid as to the present company, still we think the people of the town of Reno, usually the most enterprising and magnanimous community on the coast should combine and effect a settlement of this matter out of Court. If their neighbors are damaged let the damage be ascertained and the whole town or county could pay it by public subscription or appropriation by the general fund of the county. Suppose for the purpose of criticism that we place ourselves in the position of the Moran Bros. Our statement of fact would be about as follows:

"That originally, we had loaned nearly half a million dollars to the proprietors of that road and had been forced to take the property for payment. That when we got it we found that it was not self-sustaining, to say nothing of paying interest on the investment. In the hope of improving it into a paying property we had expended nearly half a million more and yet the whole plant barely paid expenses. Fire comes and the freight depot and offices are destroyed and we expend large sums in erecting new and substantial buildings in the town of Reno thereby adding to the tax roll of the county, property which improves the appearance of that part of the city in which it is built; that we had erected machine shops of stone and brick, and made other improvements, all at a cost of about $30,000; that we had still to add another half million for extension of the line before we could hope to secure any return. Would we feel encouraged to make this last addition to the sinking fund if we were continually to be subjected to expensive and unjust litigation by a few individuals in a community that has been and is to be largely benefited by it?"

The object of this litigation may be to secure a sale of these properties to the company. No man likes to be forced to buy what he does not want especially when all expenditures should be made in lengthening the line. And is Reno to derive the great benefits that railroads give to towns where they center and be entirely free from the slight annoyances that result from the operation of them?

Was it the railroads that made Chicago, Omaha, Ogden, even Reno itself, or was it the products of the farm? No city in the Union but has railroads running through its streets. In Reno trains pass through East street twice in 24 hours. In hundreds of other cities trains pass through their streets 24 times an hour, and yet are not subjected to such a nuisance as litigation for maintaining a nuisance. True, the property owners mentioned may have some equity in their case, but we do not think the people of Washoe county can afford to lose the benefits that would result to them from the extension of the road to Madeline plains, for the sake of forcing a purchase by the company of the property along East street.

The Moran Bros. are none the less human because of their owning the N. C. & O., and no person wants to be forced into buying what he does not need.

We are satisfied the road will not be extended northward another mile until this matter is satisfactorily settled. Therefore, we hope to see our neighbors and allies exercising their usual sagacity in an amicable adjustment of the controversy.

Mike Dablin and Dan Callahan, a couple of booze tanks, were ticketed for the county jail for eight days each by Justice Young yesterday for violating the police laws of the Riverside municipality.

Church Services.

The Constitutional Convention.

As the question of calling a Constitutional Convention is likely to be discussed in the State Convention, the Silver State inquires would it not be advisable for voters at the Democratic primaries next Saturday to say on their ballots for delegates to the State Convention whether they are for or against a Constitutional Convention?

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine which can truly be said, "One Hundred Dollars in One Dollar." Medicines in large and smaller bottles produce as good results as Hood's. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered."

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is no more sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly.

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

Write "Entries to races" on outside of envelope and seal.

Entrance fee, 10 per cent of purse—to accompany entries.

In all races five or more to enter and three or more to start.

National Association Rules to govern trotting, but the Board reserves the right to "hot heat" or "any two classes alternately, if necessary to finish any day's racing, or to trot a special race between the heats, or change the order of races advertised for any day.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Board no horse is qualified to be entered in any District race that has not been owned or kept in the District six (6) months prior to the day of the race, and any entry by any person of any disqualified horse shall be held liable for the entrance fee contracted, without right to compete for a purse, and shall be held liable to penalties prescribed by the National Association and Rules of the State Agricultural Society and extended from the Association.

If, in the opinion of the Judges, any race can not be completed on the closing day of the Fair, it may be continued or declared off at the option of the Judges.

In all races noted above, five or more paid up entries required to fill and three or more horses to start, but the Board reserves the right to hold entries and start a race with a less number and deduct a proportionate amount of the purse.

When less than the required number of starters appear they may contest for the entrance money, to be divided as follows: 5-5% to the first, and 35% to the second.

Rules of the State Agricultural Society to govern running races except where conditions named are otherwise.

Any person not intending to start his horse must notify the Secretary in writing on or before 6 o'clock the evening previous to the day of the race.

Horses entered in races can only be drawn by consent of the Judges.

For a walkover in any race a horse shall only be entitled to his own entrance fee and one-half of the entrance received from other entries for said purse; and a horse winning a race entitled to first money only, except, when distancing the field, then entitled to first and third money only. A horse who but one money under any other circumstances.

The state of all parties interested in a horse is called to the rules of the National Trotting Association, under provisions of which, except as otherwise specified, all matters pertaining to the trotting races will be conducted.

Races begin each day at 1 o'clock P. M., sharp.

INSURANCE.

Insurance Company.

Assets, $12,000,000.

The history of the past has proven beyond a question that an endowment policy in a life insurance company is a much

BETTER INVESTMENT

Than a savings bank; FIRST, because it is very much safer—as the law of the State of New York requires every life insurance company to keep a

Reserve in First-Class Securities

Equal to its liabilities, dollar for dollar; SECOND, in case of death while making these small deposits, the life insurance company will pay, just when most needed by the family, the

Full Amount

Of the sum insured, amounting to 10, 20, or even 30 times as much as has been deposited; or on the

Return Premium

Plan of the MANHATTAN, they would do even more than this, for they would at death pay the face of the policy and in addition all the deposits (premiums) paid, while the savings bank would only return the amounts actually deposited with interest. Who would not purchase a valuable piece of property—a farm for example—worth $10,000, if he could have twenty years to pay for it, in small sums of $300 per annum with interest on deferred payments and without any tax on it? The $300 per year being only 3 per cent of the $10,000—a sum not much greater than that paid annually for taxes on property in hand, of the same cost, and especially if he could have the further conditions specially stated in the contract, 1st, that if he dies while making these payments—even after one only has been made—

No Further Payments Shall be Required

And the full title in fee simple to the entire farm shall at once be given to his family; and 2d, that if at any time after the three years during the twenty years he shall be unable to continue the payments and from sickness or any misfortune, that then he could discontinue any further payments and have in fee simple such portions of the farm as he has paid for; thus, if one-fourth of the payments had been made, he would own one separate fourth of the farm, etc., and at the same time the farm be entirely free from all claims of creditors, under all circumstances, not even to be reached by writ of execution or attachment issued by any court, while if living to the end of the twenty years and the annual payments have been made, the

Entire Property in Fee Simple

is secured.

Now the MANHATTAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY offers all this and more, for instead of offering LAND on these terms, which is often eaten up by legal expenses and fees in case of the death of the purchaser, or swallowed up by a mortgage given to secure deferred payments, thus losing the whole amount paid in and leaving the family destitute, or dependent, it offers a

Specific Bond Secured by Millions ## of First-Class Securities.

Agreeing to pay MONEY on the same terms and conditions as above—the cost per year varying at different ages, but otherwise substantially the same terms as above stated, while the sum to be paid at the end of twenty years will be increased by dividends and compounded interest for the full term, thus making the investment a very PROFITABLE and ADVANTAGEOUS one.

Inquiries concerning the bonds of this company will receive prompt reply if addressed to

At a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee of Nevada, held this day, it was ordered that a

Republican State Convention

—BE HELD AT—

VIRGINIA CITY,

—ON—

Thursday, Sept. 4, 1890

At 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating a full State Ticket, viz:

Member of Congress,
Governor,
Lieutenant Governor,
Judge of the Supreme Court,
Clerk of the Supreme Court,
Secretary of State,
State Controller,
State Treasurer,
Surveyor General,
State Printer,
Superintendent of Public Instruction,
Four Judges of the District Court,
Two Members of Board of Regents of State University.

Also for the appointment of a

State Central Committee.

The basis of representation of the respective counties in the Convention shall be one delegate for each 50 votes, and one for each fraction of 25 votes or over cast for the Harrison and Morton electors, aggregating 146 delegates, apportioned as follows:

The several Republican County Central Committees will call a

Primary Election

—Of the People on—

SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1890,

For the purpose of electing delegates to the said
State Convention the Primary Election to be carried out in compliance with the laws of the State and the instructions of this Committee.

The following test will be required of each and every voter at the said Primary Elections:
"I am a citizen of this State and will support the nominees of the Republican party."

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this committee reaffirms the State and National Republican platform of 1888, including the declaration that the Republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money; and that it "condemns all efforts to demonetize silver."

Resolved, That the persistent neglect of Secretary Windom to increase the coinage of silver to the maximum of four million dollars per month, coupled with his attempt to influence Congress to pass legislation which would favor the demonetization of silver, is a shameful violation of the interests of the National Republican platform, an attack upon the rights and interests of the miners, farmers and workers of the land, and an act of party perfidy that should call for his retirement from the councils of an Administration which is pledged to help and not to hinder the demonetiza-tion of silver.

Resolved, That the Republican party of this State is in favor of free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver; that it holds to this principle as a test of party faith and a test of party allegiance;
that it will permit of no abandonment or modification of this doctrine; that let whoever will prove recreant to the principle of bimetalism it will remain steadfast thereon, and that it invites all voters in Nevada who favor the repeal of the inequitous interdicted law of 1873 by which silver was demonetized, and who desire the establishment of free and unlimited coinage as the law of the United States of America, to join in electing delegates to a Republican State Convention.

F. O. LORD, Secretary.
